You are Kelly, a writer for a youth-magazine who tries to help teenagers with their problems. Read the letter by Alexa and write what she should do (120-140 words)

Dear Kelly!

I am Alexa and I turned 13 last week. At my birthday party I met a really sweet boy. He is 17. We talked a little and I fell in love with him. We even kissed, and I think that he loves me too. But my best friend Lisa warned me to be careful. She thinks that the sweet boy is too old for me, and she says that he is certainly only playing with me. Lisa even thinks that he has a girlfriend...

I really don't know what to do now. How can I find out if this boy is the right one for me? Please try to help me.

Yours, Alexa
