Hi,

My name is Louise Barnett. I'm 15 years old, and I live in San Diego, in Southern California, near the Mexican border. My father is a mechanic and my mother is a secretary. I have an older sister, who is 19. Her name is Adriana and she works in a store. My younger brother is 14, and we both go to Putney High School.

I like school, but there has been a problem lately. There is a boy who keeps looking at me, but he has never talked to me. He looks nice, but why doesn't he say a word? He makes me nervous.

We live in a house with a small garden. I often go swimming with my friends. The beach is quite close. We also go shopping together too. Sometimes my father and I drive into Mexico. We live only half an hour away from the border. In Mexico everything is very cheap, but I never go there alone or with my friends, because it can be quite dangerous.

It's very hot in San Diego in summer, and even in winter it's not cold. I like living here, but I would also like to hear from young people in other countries.

Please write.

Yours,

Louise
