

Conditionals:

1. If you come to the party, you (see) _____ my new boss.
2. She wouldn't have complained if the food (be) _____ good.
3. The music will be great if my favorite DJ (come) _____.
4. The monkey would throw a coco nut if you (try) _____ to take away his banana.
5. Rihanna (not become) _____ famous if her manager (not meet) _____ Jay Z. (III)
6. We (chat) _____ with him if he (install) _____ a webcam. (I)
7. If I (live) _____ in Rome, I (speak) _____ perfect Italian.
8. They (must learn) _____ Russian if they wanted to work in Moscow.
9. The car (crash) _____ if the road (be) _____ slippery. (III)
10. I (go) _____ to India if I (be) _____ him. (II)
11. If they (see) _____ the film, they will laugh.
12. Norah (ask) _____ him out if he (be) _____ friendlier. (III)
13. (Ana/let) _____ him in if he (come) _____? (II)
14. The radio announcer (inform) _____ them about the earthquake if there (not be) _____ an black out (Stromausfall). (III)
15. If you (live) _____ in Florida, you (must expect) _____ tornadoes. (I)

Passive:

1. Tom built a house in 1985.
2. She has driven her car for more than 17 years.
3. The monkey will eat the banana.
4. She was writing a long text.
5. I am going to give him the box. (2 possibilities)
6. The pilot must land the airplane safely.
7. They had entered the apartment through an open window.
8. The police are stopping the drunk driver.
9. We haven't found the keys yet.
10. They wouldn't have found the secret spot.
11. She showed him her toys. (2 possibilities)
12. The man will have to switch off the computer.
13. Sheila and her boyfriend feed the dog.
14. Did you pay the bill?
15. We don't sell computer equipment.